PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

The Shepherd calls us by name and leads us to abundant life.

We hear your voice and hasten to follow.

The Shepherd prepares a table and lavishly pours out grace.

We hear your invitation and take our place at the feast.

We hear your call and give you praise.

CALL TO CONFESSION

The Spirit of God helps us in our weakness, interceding with sighs too deep for words. Trusting in God's grace, let us confess our sin.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

We have gone astray, O Shepherd.

You call us to follow, and we hear your voice.

Yet, we choose to heed other voices—

voices that promise status and comfort and a carefree life.

But such promises are empty, and that life does not satisfy.

Call to us again, O Shepherd.

Summon us onto right paths to pursue justice in your name,
to seek after the well-being of all.

Lead us to the table you prepare for us—

where rivals share both bread and blessings and discover there is enough for all.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Hear the good news of God's promise: I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh. Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven! Know that you are forgiven and be at peace.

Thanks be to God.

LISTENING FOR GOD'S WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Living God, with joy we celebrate the presence of your risen Word. Enliven our hearts by your Holy Spirit so that we may proclaim the good news of eternal and abundant life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING Acts 2:41-47

Though we are still a few weeks away from Pentecost in the church year, our text from Acts flows from the startling events of that day. People from all over the ancient world had congregated in Jerusalem for a Jewish festival and heard the disciples speaking to them in their own language. Peter seized the moment to tell of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Many were moved to join in what would later be seen as the birth of the church. This text highlights two elements central to Christian life and worship: baptism and communion.

So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added. They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

PSALM 23

Refrain

- 1 The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
- 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.

Refrain

- 3 He restores my soul.
He leads me in paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.
- 4 Even though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death, I fear no evil,
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Refrain

- 5 Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
- 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house
of the LORD forever. Refrain

GOSPEL READING

John 10:1-10

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.”

This is the good news which we have received,
in which we stand, and by which we are saved.

Thanks be to God.
